Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you for your very kind letters of May 27, 1982 to the Attorney General and to me with respect to the legal work which we recently did for the Agency. It was very kind of you to write.

During the work which we did for the Agency, we worked very closely with your General Counsel, Stanley Sporkin, and also with Associate General Counsel, [redacted] as well as with a lawyer on Stanley's staff, [redacted] (who has since left to rejoin my former law firm). We in this office were very impressed with the integrity, thoroughness and scholarship manifested by these individuals. It was a pleasure to get to know and work with them. It must be comforting to you to have such extremely capable and conscientious lawyers in your General Counsel's Office.

I look forward to working again with the Agency. Please let us know whenever we can be of assistance.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness.

Very truly yours,
